

DISCUSS VILLAGE ELECTIONS

200 Taxpayers In N. Lenox Twp. Ask Adjustments

Yesterday, Jan. 28, was the deadline for New Lenox township owners to file complaints with the Will county board of review.

Final tabulation of the complaints were to be made this morning, too late to be included in this issue, but it was estimated that the number was approximately 200.

Meade Baltz, chairman of the board of supervisors and as such chairman of the board of review, said yesterday that the New Lenox Taxpayers Equality Association has been working local and state tax officials concerning the New Lenox situation and that problems were being worked out.

"This is a fine group," Baltz said, referring to the Association. "And it is a pleasure to work with their representatives. They have given us some expert assistance and I feel sure that they have learned from us too so that all of us have a better understanding of the problems involved."

There will be no changes in improved properties that are valued at 55% of their market value, Mr. Baltz said.

There have been a number of inequalities in the New Lenox assessments that have been pointed out to the reviewing body by the Taxpayers Association as well as individuals and it is expected that these will be adjusted.

Due to clerical errors in making out the real estate assessment roles in New Lenox township this year, there was a storm of protest by residents in that township. A new list has since been published and matters are reported working out.

Since New Lenox valuations have been pushed up it is found that some of them are higher than for comparable property in adjoining townships. Formerly they were lower. Now apparently the next move will be to bring up neighboring valuations, it was indicated.

The Taxpayers Association is headed by John B. Anderson, Jr., a resident of New Lenox township and a Joliet attorney. Other officers are: Don Wennlund, vice president; Ronald Crisman, secretary; George Vally, treasurer; Other members of the board of directors are: C. W. Batson, Edward A. Chesko, George Fahrrenholz, Ernest Hoefler and John Oster.

Mary Bremner, Oldest Orland Resident, Dies

Mrs. Mary Bremner, 95, oldest citizen of Orland township, died in her home, 139th st., Monday following a long illness.

She was born in Homer township April 18, 1863, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Jungles. She was united in marriage with John C. Bremner in the St. James church at the Sag, Sept. 3, 1884 and established their home on the farm on 139th st. where she has lived since. They celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1934. Mr. Bremner died 13 years ago.

Mrs. Bremner was a member of the Orland Park Royal Neighbors of America and of the Altar and Rosary society of St. Michael's Catholic church. Surviving are five daughters, Mrs. Margaret McMecham and Mrs. Viola McCabe, Chicago, and Sister Mary Yvonne, Iowa, BVM, and the Misses Anna and Mary, at home, of Orland; two sons, Robert, Orland and John B. St. Louis, Mo., and three grandchildren. A son Bernard preceded his mother in death.

Removal was made to the Schmaedeke funeral home from where services will be held at 10 a. m. this morning, Jan. 29 to the St. Michael's church, Orland Park at 10:30 a. m. Burial will be in the St. James cemetery at the Sag Bridge, near Lemont.

New Lenox, Frankfort, Mokena, Orland Park Will Choose Trustees

Village elections are still some weeks away—April 21 is the date—and while there is some talk on the subject, there has been no rush of candidates.

Orland Park, Mokena and Frankfort will elect trustees, as members of the village council are called, but New Lenox is the only community in the area where a mayor will be named as well as board members and village clerk.

The present mayor at New Lenox, Lloyd Berlin, who had previously served as a member of the council there, has definitely decided that he will not seek re-election.

He would have been a candidate but for press of business and personal considerations, Berlin said. But he added that if called upon at any time by his successor he would be glad to give what aid he could relative to a proposed sewer system.

A sewer system has been a major project in Mayor Berlin's book since he took office and he has high hopes that plans can be worked out under which the proposed improvement can be put within the community's financial reach.

Trustees Keith Hossack and Ronald Vondrasek, only and Police Magistrate Otto Boromet are the only village officials whose terms do not expire. The term of Leonard Heimerdinger, who moved to California some months ago, still has two years to run and someone will be elected for the unexpired term.

The other trustees whose terms expire this year are: Noel Elliott, James Battle and Stanley Gilmore. Also expiring is the term of Robert J. McCleary, village clerk.

None of the incumbents have stated whether they will seek reelection.

The same is true in the case of the three trustees in Mokena whose terms expire this year, Willard Munch, Lyman Teague and Ray Westlund. They have not yet made up their minds on running again.

Three trustees are to be elected at Orland Park this spring and the incumbents whose terms expire, Melvin H. Doogan, Paul Voss Jr., and Lloyd E. Cowan, have indicated they will be candidates and run as a ticket.

At the regular meeting of the Orland Park village board Monday night it was decided that candidates would run on tickets, so the incumbents would run as such.

Three trustees will also be elected at Frankfort. Those whose terms expire are, Wayne DePorto, John Topp and Clyde Reils. They have not yet committed themselves as to whether they will seek reelection and to date no other candidates have been forthcoming.

Charles Liess, Mokena Native, Dies Suddenly

Charles Liess, 77, a native of Mokena, died suddenly at his home 608 Clement st., Joliet, Monday, Jan. 26. He had been in poor health for a number of years. His brother Frank passed away Dec. 13 in Forsythe, Mont.

Born in Mokena Nov. 8, 1881 the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Liess, he lived in Joliet the past four years.

When a young man he and his brother Frank operated a grocery store in Mokena where he also had a bakery. After disposing of this business Mr. Liess became a baker in the bake shop in the former J. R. Hobbs store in Joliet.

He was united in marriage with Miss Gertrude Peterson of Chicago and then it was he opened a bakery on Front street in Mokena which they maintained for 15 years.

After giving up the bakery business they moved to the junction of route 6 and Wolf road where they operated a gas station and restaurant for years. Failing health compelled him to give up that work and then it was that they moved to Joliet. Mr. Liess was a friendly and accommodating person, and gained many friends while in the bakery and at the gas station. He was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America. Last June Mr. and Mrs. Liess were privileged to observe their golden wedding anniversary.

Surviving beside his wife are a daughter, Mrs. Fern Duvick, Newark; two sons, Sherwin and Robert, Joliet; three sisters, Mrs. Mary Leonard, Joliet; Mrs. Jennie Cooper, Mokena and Mrs. Frieda Voss, Lemon Grove, Calif. Two brothers, John and Frank and a sister, Mrs. Rose Reab preceded him in death.

Removal was to the Hirsch chapel at Tinley Park where funeral services will be held this afternoon Jan. 29 at 1:30 o'clock, with the Rev. William Riemann officiating. Burial will be in St. John's cemetery Mokena.

Josephine Sayers Rites Sunday; Stroke Victim

Last rites were held for Mrs. Josephine Sayers, Sunday afternoon in the Sonntag funeral chapel, Joliet, with the Rev. Alfred Hunter, pastor of the New Lenox Methodist church officiating. Burial was made in the Maplewood cemetery at New Lenox.

Mrs. Sayers who lived in New Lenox for over 53 years was born April 1, 1877 in Eau Claire, Wis., the daughter of the late John and Sarah Volek. She moved with her parents to Chicago when a small child. The family only lived in Chicago a few years until they moved to Alpine on a farm.

Here it was she met William Sayers, a mail carrier from the Orland post office and on Feb. 9, 1897 they were united in marriage. They established housekeeping on a farm in New Lenox and in 1927 after retiring from that occupation, they moved into the village of New Lenox.

Six years ago, after the death of her husband, Mrs. Sayers came to Mokena and made her home with her son Harold and wife and family. Two weeks ago she suffered a paralytic stroke and died Jan. 22.

Surviving, besides this son, is another, Walter of Joliet; four daughters, Maud, Mrs. Howard Ayers and Mildred, Mrs. Joseph Novak, New Lenox; Bessie Sayers, Channahon; and Ruth, Mrs. Ray Lenz, Riverdale; 14 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren and a brother George Volek of Mokena. A son Willard preceded her in death.

FIREMEN BATTLED zero temperatures as well as flames early Tuesday when called to Valley View Farm restaurant on U. S. 30, near Wolf rd. Fire broke out in the apartment of the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jurcak and they and their three children escaped in their night garb. Firemen responded from three communities, Frankfort, New Lenox and Mokena. (Marvin Smith photo)

Valley View Farm

Fire Routs Family in Zero Cold

Five persons were routed from their apartment into near zero cold around 2 o'clock Tuesday morning when fire of undetermined origin broke out at Valley View Farm on U.S. 30 near Wolf road.

Firemen from Frankfort, Mokena and New Lenox were at the scene quickly and confined the damage largely to the floor above the restaurant. The owners, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jurcak were awakened by a crackling sound and discovered fire above them.

The couple sprang out of bed and aroused their three offspring, Frank Jr., 19, Lois Jean, 18 and Shirley Lynn, 9. The family then fled to the first floor and firemen were called.

Mrs. Jurcak said yesterday that no estimate of the damage had been made up to then but it would be covered by insurance.

"We want to give full credit to the firemen," Mrs. Jurcak said. "Thanks to their efforts the damage was confined to the upper floor and we have been able to continue the operation of the restaurant. Our kitchen and dining rooms escaped damage."

Firemen were at the scene for several hours before getting the fire completely out. The near-zero temperatures added to the difficulties of the firemen's job. The Mokena tank truck was late again in getting to the scene because it had to be filled after the alarm came in. The Mokena department has no place to keep its tank truck and in winter months it must be drained and kept empty between runs to avoid freezing. Besides damage to the apartment itself the Jurcaks lost most of their furnishings and clothing.

The fire did not spread to any of the other buildings that make up the Valley View Farm establishment.

Sheriff Gilbert Knater had deputies at the scene and with state police they kept traffic moving.

For Orland Park

San. Dist. O.K.'s Plant Plans

(CNS) The Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago has taken a major step forward in its program for construction of a $400,000 sewage treatment works in Orland Park.

District trustees have approved plans and specifications for the plant and bids for the job are expected to be opened within a month. The new plant, the first for the southwest section of Cook county, may be in operation before the end of the year, said Frank W. Chesrow, district president.

Construction work most likely won't start, however, until April when the weather turns better, said Horace P. Ramey, chief engineer. The project is listed as a six month construction job.

The Orland Park treatment works is designed to handle initially a population of 8,000. The design is expandable to serve double that capacity, said Ramey, who reported the $400,000 estimated construction cost.

The plant site is a 9 acre tract on the east side of the Wabash railroad at about 146th street. The north end of the parcel contains an oxidation pond, the only sewage treatment system now in Orland Park.

The plant is part of an overall program in which the village is now in the planning stage for installation of sewers in the long established sections of Orland Park, said Ramey. The older sections of Orland Park have septic tanks no sewers. In recent years, home builders have put in sewers when developing the new sections in the village.

Village population is estimated at 2,000. If the building boom continues at a brisk pace, some experts figure Orland Parks population would hit 8,000 initial capacity of the new treatment works—in two years and 16,000 within 10 to 15 years, Ramey said.

The treated effluent from the plant will have two drainage outlets—one into McGinness Slough, also called Orland lake, and the other into Spring creek, a tributary of Hickory creek.

Plant facilities will include a pumping station, two Imhoff tanks, trickling filter, final settling tank, digested sludge storage, and appurtenances.

Fight Trailer Camp

Would be Located in Orland Twp.

(CNS) Circuit Judge Thomas E. Kluczynski has ordered the county to answer within 20 days a lawsuit that seeks to establish a trailer court on 40 acres of vacant land on the south side of 159th street between 90th and 94th avenues in Orland township.

The court Friday overruled the county's motion to dismiss the bill, filed in May, 1958, by First National Bank of Blue Island, trustee of the property.

Judge Kluczynski assigned the case of Jacob Shamburg, master in chancery, for hearing and recommendation.

Attorney Robert E. Haskins, for the plaintiff said the county board has refused to rezone the parcel from farming to B1 business. The suit asks the court hold farm zoning of the property invalid and unconstitutional.

The site is one half mile east of Mannheim and 159th street.

Haskins said there are tourist cabins, a frame restaurant and a gasoline station on the northwest corner of the in tersection, a dining room and cocktail lounge on the southwest corner, a trailer court on the southeast corner, and a motel on the northeast corner.

In view of this, the suit contends prohibiting the plaintiff from establishing a trailer camp is not justified.

The County Board directed the State's Attorney's office to fight the suit.

(Orland Park village, township and school officials are all on record against location of a trailer camp at the site in question.)

New Lenox Post Office Vehicle Drivers Get Safety Recognition

New Lenox post office vehicle drivers were singled out for outstanding performance in safety during 1958 by the Chicago Regional Operations Director Robert R. Justus, it was announced today by L. Brown postmaster here.

The citation is an annual award presented to postal installations with improved accident experience ratings compared to the average regional rate of vehicle accidents occurring in each 100,000 miles of travel on official business.

"When delay of mail service is caused by an accident, our efficiency of operation is affected," Mr. Justus stated. "Your employees have definitely contributed to good service by preventing accidents by mail vehicles. To maintain our objective 'Moving Today's Mail Today', cognizance is being given to the fact that 'Safety is Everybody's Business by New Lenox employees of the Post Office.'"

Since the Post Office Department began its campaign for safety four years ago Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield has been presented the coveted National Safety Council award for "outstanding contributions in the Nation's traffic safety effort." It is the first time that one organizational group has been given this honor four years in a row.

New Lenox drivers are a part of the huge postal fleet which travels more than 884 million miles per year. About one-fifth of its half-million employees use vehicles on official business. Each of the nation's 37,000 post offices are a contributing factor in establishing improved safety on the roads throughout America and its possessions, wherever U. S. Mail is delivered.

New Lenox vehicle drivers, compared to the Chicago Regional Area (Illinois and Michigan), average better than the Regional Fleet based on number of accidents, cost and casualties due to vehicle collisions.

In addition to the group performance award by the Regional Operations director, individual driver awards for safe driving are presented to accident free employees based on their experience each year.

Prior to 1954, the Post Office Department possessed one of the worst traffic safety records in government. The Department's present intensive program, which includes safe driving instruction, driver examination and licensing, rules for safe operation, awards and other incentives for safe driving, is paying off year after year.

"This program has now paid off in 1958 with the lowest accident rate and casualty rate in history for postal vehicle in our Chicago Region," Mr. Justus commented. "When one considers that postal vehicles in communities in every center of population in Illinois and Michigan, the importance of a vigorous safety effort by the Post Office Department is easily understood." The New Lenox postal carriers are: Edw. Dau, Walter Steinbrenner, and Phil Lord a substitute.

New Lenox Board Buys Squad Car

The New Lenox village board has purchased a new squad car for the police department. Bids were received from three dealers, Jacobs Chevrolet, Joliet; Joliet Motor Sales and Otto Bormet, who represents a Ford dealer at Manhattan, and the one from Jacobs was lowest.

The village purchased a 4-door sedan and $1,020 cash paid by New Lenox includes the price of transferring radio and other equipment. The price was lower than the village board had anticipated.

LAWRENCE SMITH—

(Continued from page 1), the provisional president of Cuba, Dr. Manuel Urrutia, newly appointed by Fidel Castro. While flying to Camaguey I was to film the first interview of the new president of Cuba. The interview was conducted in English, Urrutia speaking very good English, by Stewart Novins. When the president's plane landed at Camaguey, so that he could meet with Castro, we were able to film the first interview in English by U. S. television of Fidel Castro, the interview again being conducted by Stewart Novins. If I make these interviews sound easy, they were not. They were done under as poor working conditions as a cameraman could imagine. In most cases, the 15 pound sound camera was hand held, a mortal sin under most conditions, and Stewart Novins had to shout his questions above the roar of an airplane's engines or the roar of a crowd.

The rest of our trip to Havana was by C-46, an ancient transport plane flown by the now rebel Cuban air force. This was an experience sure to change anyone into a believer of the admonition that God never meant man to fly. We arrived in Havana late Tuesday afternoon to find the city waiting with anticipation for the triumphal entry of Fidel Castro.

Early the next day I was dispatched by Mr. Dongli, who by now was well entrenched in the Hotel Nacional in Havana, acting as the commander in chief of the two cameraman-correspondent teams that CBS had in Cuba. The assimilation of news back in the United States has no idea of what amount of money and manpower goes into the coverage of such a story as the Cuban revolution, so that, in the case of the television viewer, he is kept abreast of the latest developments in Cuba. In all big news stories such as this news coverage depends on the man behind the scenes who makes all the necessary arrangements of things running from interviews with Fidel Castro to having food flown in when for two days there was no food available in Havana. In this the man behind the scenes was Frank Dongli.

Wednesday and Thursday found me playing tag with Fidel Castro's caravan as it moved from Colon in Eastern Cuba to downtown Havana. No one can imagine the welcome given to the conquering hero as he made his way across Cuba towards Havana. Towns literally tore themselves apart welcoming him. This of course was only a prelude to the welcome awaiting him in Havana.

When Castro finally entered the city of Havana Thursday afternoon, every place of business was closed and it appeared that every one of its million inhabitants lined the streets on his route through the heart of the city to give him a hero's welcome. The profound effect of this young (32 years old) ex-lawyer upon the people of Cuba was seen in the face of every one that saw him from the youngest child to oldest adult. It made me wonder what magnetism he had about him, which was heightened by incidents such as that which took place late Thursday night. When he gave a speech at Camp Columbia, the past headquarters of the hated Batista army, some white doves were released. One of them flew straight to him and perched on his shoulder while he spoke. It is hard to define but one can't help but feel that there is a binding force far above that of a conquering hero that binds him to the people of Cuba.

After witnessing this, the next couple of days which saw the origination of the first live "Face the Nation" show, with Fidel Castro, from a foreign country, were mild indeed.

Stroke Fatal to Retired Veteran

A cerebral hemorrhage suffered last Friday was fatal Saturday, Jan. 24, to Adam Rusin, 46, a retired air force man, who had been living at Mokena with a sister, Alice, Mrs. Nicholas Grybasi, 1912 Wolf road.

He was a native of Pennsylvania, son of the late Thomas and Mary Rusin. He retired from the air force last May and since then had lived at Mokena. Rusin was in World War II and his last three years in service were spent on a base at Seville, Spain.

TEPEE TALK

This game marked the best game shooting percentage turned in by Bremen this season. The percentage was almost 54%. The first half was even better than that with a mark of 59%. When the Braves are shooting like this they aren't going to lose.

Bob Schneider certainly had his evening of the year with the fabulous mark of 9 of 12 shots made. Nothing that Bob shot was close up. He scored no rebound tips or lay up baskets. All of the shots were from at least 8 to 30 feet away.

Coach Bill Brown felt that the team did a good job on shooting. Certainly that was a portion and a major one in the victory. "We looked real good," remarked coach Brown. "When they are shooting like this it is great to be the coach."

In addition to their shooting superiority the Braves controlled the rebounding very well. Jim Randolph, 6'4" and all, who has looked rather startled in past games, found himself over the weekend. He scored over 5 points in each game and against Sandburg he grabbed 9 rebounds in a substitute role. That is a fine job.

Bremen's football players, Hoffman, Tatum, and company gave Duane Erickson a chance to redeem himself in the scoring column.

Jim Mifflin's new corner shot on which he scored three baskets is a welcome addition to the Braves offense. Against E. Aurora Jim continually wanted to drive, but was unable to score. Friday he found that outside shot to be more effective against the zone defense.

Jim Mannaioni is hitting on the long one-hand set shot. Jim did not score on one drive in shot in the entire game on Friday night. Up until this game, the drive-in had been Jim's bread and butter shot. He has looked mighty fine on that long set shot in practice this week.

Eagles Nest

Sports Eagles Nest 1-24

"When your boys are down and shooting poor and you catch Bremen when they are hot—you are bound to get a beating," claimed disappointed Bill Adams, Eagle coach. "I knew that that Bremen crowd could shoot—for I've seen them do it."

"Certainly, hope that our shooting perks up against Rich and Reavis over this next week-end. Of course, my defense was the worst that it has been all season—last week."

It is a fact that good accurate long shooting is almost impossible to shoot—Bill.

Jerry McBride was sorely missed on the basket scoring end, but he was alert to catch the Bremen defenses down on numerous occasions. Three or four passes to Don Arnold were perfect. At times McBride shown, but his general play left some to be desired.

Bremen Five Hits 54% of Shots; Bob Rodger Scores 9 in 12 Tries

The Bremen Braves just shot off the wings of the Sandburg Eagles on Friday evening at Midlothian. The shot gun blast netted a 77-62 verdict.

Bremen's shooting was phenomenal—it was another nite of "white heat" shooting. The erratic Braves, with precision timing, riddled the net with the sweet music of 54%. They blew out a wild, jazzy tune of 54 shots and hit that ole' trumpet on 29 occasions. Cool—but really hot.

Bob Rodger had his best shooting night of his high school career with nine shots in 12 tries. That my friend is a marksman. The percentage of bullseyes was a cool 75%. Wow! Nothing of this total was from within less than 8 feet of the basket.

After the first quarter the Sandburg team just never got together again. The philosophy of some coaches seemed true on this night, "the best offense is your best defense".

Jim Mannaioni scored on a free throw for the games initial point. Jazzy Rodger came along with a left handed shot for Bremen's 3-0 lead. Then Rodger counted from the free lane; 4-0—Bremen.

Dick Barry of the Eagles whipped thru a free shot; 4-1. Supple, Don Arnold, tipped in a basket and it was, 6-3. Randle El of Bremen hit a jumper; 8-3.

Jerry McBride, another Eagle, made good on a foul shot, but Jim Mifflin of Bremen nullified it with a long jump shot from the corner. Arnold took a pass from McBride, shoveled it thru the hoop. Rodger shot another.

Mannaioni set and ripped the net with a 25-footer. McBride fooled the Bremen defense and a quick and accurate pass to Arnold under the basket. Don put it up and in Bremen missed and Phil Yurtis of Sandburg was fouled trying to get to his basket. Phil hit for a point. Score—Bremen 12, Sandburg 9.

Mifflin bounced off to the corner, whirled, jumped, shot—the score was 14-9. Arnold was fouled while trying to shoot. Don missed one free shot—Yurtis took the rebound and made it good to cut the lead to 14-12. Rodger hit on his third shot of the game. Both teams missed shots at the basket. Bremen led at the end of the first quarter, 16-12.

That was about it for Sandburg. The rest of the game was spent trying to keep the score just a bit respectable; for at the end of three quarters the score was 61-39—Bremen's favor.

The second period brought a foul shooting phase to the game. The Braves increased their lead with a pair of foul tries by Mannaioni and then three pairs by John Przybyla. Schneider of Sandburg managed a pair in between—so the score read a 24-14 margin for the rampaging Bremens. Rodger jazzed over the middle and popped in a quick one. Schneider rebounded and Duane Erickson shot for a basket. Przybyla hit on a long one hander.

Mannaioni and Rodger out did the effort by Arnold and the half found the Braves with a comfortable, 40-27 spread.

Third period was a nine-point gain for the Redmen of Midlothian. Rodger missed two of the three shots that he misfired in the entire game during this quarter. High scoring Arnold of the Eagles scored just one basket in this quarter. Randle El scored 12 points with 4 field goals. Most of these were rebound shots. Schneider was particularly outstanding on this type shot.

Both coaches cleared the bench in the fourth and final quarter. The completion of the game changed completely at this point. Erickson of Sandburg team scored 11 points in this quarter on foul shots.

SUMMARY:

Bremen frosh-soph easily defeated the Sandburg under-studies by a convincing 50-29 margin. It was the 11 straight victory for young Redmen.

Reavis 17; Mannaioni 14; Mifflin 4-0-8; Rodger 9-3-21; Randle El 6-1-12; Przybyla 1-1-3; Hoffman 0-3-3; Randolph 3-1-7; Lovrich 1-0-2; Tatum 0-0-0; Falk 0-0-0; Anderson 0-0-0. SW Suburban Conference Quintets Have Full Schedule This Week-End

It is the busiest week-end of the season in the SW Suburban high school basketball league this Jan. 30-31.

Friday evening Bremen faces Lincoln-Way High school and Carl Sandburg treks to Rich.

On Saturday Bremen is host to Oak Lawn; Lincoln-Way is host to Rich; Sandburg is host to Reavis.

Bremen should have an easy time disposing of winless Lincoln-Way. Sandburg will take its lumps from Rich.

Remember, earlier in the season that L-Way gave the Braves the scare of the season, 62-58. Kruzich's lads will be up for the contest, but the Braves new offense with its added height will be too much for the Knights. Bremen should win by at least 15. Rich might be able to choose its score on Friday at Park Forest against Sandburg. The Eagles were beaten by 17 points at Orland by the Rock-et.

Saturday should bring some exciting results. The Braves are itching to hand Oak Lawn its second defeat. Bremen was beaten in a thrilling game at Oak Lawn early in the season. This game is a pivotal point for the Redmen—if they win and keep winning it could mean a close race to second place.

Sandburg takes on Reavis at Orland in a battle to remain in third place. No doubt, losing to Rich, Sandburg will have to win this game. The "kids" from Sandburg should be fired-up, but improved Reavis is aching to gain revenge for the drubbing they received at the season's beginning. Reavis will win in a close game. Reavis is idle on Friday. Oak Lawn and Evergreen Park square off for a real battle this night.

Evergreen could upset the Spartans.

Saturday evening Evergreen Park is idle.

Friday's Results:

Bremen 77; Sandburg 62

Evergreen Park 76; Lincoln-Way 68

Oak Lawn 59; Reavis 50

Midlothian Cagers Win 55 to 50

The Braves came off with its first weekend sweep of the season by beating Thornton Fractional, 55-50. Bremen had beaten Sandburg on Friday night.

White-hot shooting of Friday night was not present on Saturday and thus the low score. The Braves shooting was only 36%, 18 of 49 shots. Fractional shot about as well with 18 of 51.

It was a more slower, deliberate game than usual for the Braves. Along with the low to tal of shots tried, the rebounds were a surprising 25-19 in favor of Bremen.

The Redmen are winning more games as they are collecting more caring-inng balls. Jim Mifflin and John Przybyla have not reached their peak in clearing the boards. The big forwards—if they ever get rugged—will control the boards.

Bremen duplicated the first quarter score of Friday evening with a, 16-12, lead. A defensive second quarter netted a 26-21, first half lead.

At the end of three periods the count had moved to, 41-32 with Bremen on top. Then in the final quarter, with substitutes for Bremen Fractional made some progress.

This win was revenge for an early season loss at Midlothian. The win brought the season's total to 6 and 6.

Jim Mifflin led the scoring with 16 points, half of those coming from the foul lane. Bob Rodger hit for 13 counters.

Pick Lincoln-Way Mat Talent as Pre-Tourney Favorite at Morris

"Lincoln-Way is the pre-tournament favorite because of its decisive win over Morris who has defeated the other two teams this season," explained Frank Kuntz, coach of the host school Morris, about the Morris Invitational Wrestling Tournament.

February 4 and 5 will feature two evenings of wrestling. The matches begin at 7 o'clock each evening. All of the action will take place at Morris high school.

Ottawa township, which has competed in the two previous tournaments, Batavia, and the host school, Morris will be the participants along with Lincoln-Way.

Kuntz is being kind to Lincoln-Way; for last Friday evening the Ottawa outfit eked out a, 28-24, decision over the Knights. This was accomplished when Tony Satterelli, leading by a wide margin, sustained an injury and had to default in the match. However, Ottawa claimed the victory.

Coach Ron Larsen is optimistic, but not bringing home the trophy, a s yet. Ottawa would probably rule the tournament favorite at this point—contrary to what Mr. Kuntz would suggest.

Last year Kankakee nosed out LaSalle-Peru by one point to win, Morris was third and Ottawa finished fourth.

The drawings will be announced at the tournament. Kuntz claims, "Lincoln-Way team is strong through out which is necessary in winning any tournament."

On Saturday morning Joliet beat Lincoln-Way 28-18. With the exception of Ed Smith, the big Lincoln-Way winners continued on. Captain Ken Zittler now has a mark of 15 wins—2 losses and one tie. Bill Zelko, sharp 145-pounder, has 14 wins—one loss—and two ties.

Tony Charval, due to 8 semester rule, finished his athletic career at Lincoln-Way with a credible 7-7-1 mark. Coach Larsen reports, "His loss will be felt by the L-Way team."

Carl Sandburg faces a rigid test over the week-end. The Eagles meet unbeaten Rich Township on Friday evening at Park Forest and then take on Reavis—currently tied for third place at Orland Park.

Sandburg was dealt a severe blow by the beating administered on Friday, Jan. 23, by the hot-handed Braves of Bremen. Sandburg kept pace as Oak Lawn beat Reavis, 59-50. Eagles are still in third.

To stay in third—Sandburg has to beat Reavis. Reavis is idle on Friday evening. It isn't probable that Sandburg will give much trouble to the high flying Rocket. So, Saturday is a must game. Reavis is a favorite after last Friday.

Watch the sports section for the big edition on the SW Suburban Wrestling tournament to be held at Rich High School in February. The issue to watch for is February 19.

Wrestling is rapidly becoming a high school spectator sport. It is the fastest growing sport from the participation and spectator interest.

Dennis Tattum, Bremen's fine fullback, is still receiving letters and trips from various colleges. Dennis has not begun to make any definite decisions about his future alma mater.

Bremen should be the winning team—or at least—one of the winning teams in the SW Suburban Conference from here to the finish. The dazzling display of basketball last Friday indicated that there should be a new effort from the Midlothian crew. A winning effort.

Sandburg will have a swimming pool and probably a swimming team to match with Bremen's when the next new addition is completed. It won't be too long until a SW Suburban swimming meet will be established.

Bremen's frosh-soph team has extended its win streak to 11 straight games. Beating Sandburg and Thornton Fractional over the last week-end, means they have beaten all six SW Suburban foes.

The only sport that Rich hasn't dominated since the beginning of the SW Suburban Conference a few years ago—is wrestling. Oak Lawn and Reavis have been the power in the grappler arena.

After Saturday you can look for Bremen High school in a tie for third place with Reavis. The Redmen should win both ends of a weekend engagement with Lincoln-Way and Oak Lawn. Both of these games will be played at Midlothian—L-Way will lose two—Sandburg could find themselves out of the picture and in fifth place if they lose to Reavis on Saturday evening—This could happen....
Cheerio!

Winter Shows To be Held by Riding Club

The New Lenox Riding club will again hold their annual winter shows this year. The first show, scheduled for Jan. 25 was called off due to the weather. It will be held Sunday, Feb. 8 at the Keith Line Stables, 600 W. 35th, Hinsdale located two blocks north and one block east of junction 34 on 83.

The club will also hold shows on the fourth Sunday of February, March and April. Anyone wishing to participate are welcome. There is no admission charge.

Eight prospective members, 11 guests and 25 members attended the club's last meeting on Jan. 18 in the Lions Den. Two previous club members rejoined.

In the activity and point contest, Cleda Olsen placed first, Glenn Vally second, and Don Warring, third. Trophies were presented to the winners. Refreshments were served by the committee and a birthday cake was served for all members whose birthdays are in January.

The 1958 Gymkhana movies were shown.

Lutherans Come Within One Point Of Upset

Trinity Lutheran just missed the biggest upset of the season by scoring 30 points in the last quarter, losing to the Methodist by the scant margin, 60-59. It was win No. 9 for the Methodists. Action took place in the Tinley Park Church League, Tuesday night.

Mr. Meyer was the difference in the final period of play, Meyer, phy. ed. teacher at Sandburg, kept the net hot in the final period of play as he scored a total of 18 points—this gave him 24 for the game.

In addition to the scoring, he controlled the team very well—also did his share of rebounding. It was the best quarter demonstration by any one player in the Tinley Park Church league this season.

The Methodist broke away in the first period and seemed headed on one of its typical wins, 23-12. Trinity battled back in the second quarter and cut the margin by four points in that effort. Half time score was 31-24.

Period three was the Methodist other period as they easily mangled the Trinity attack and sported a 16-5 quarter and a commanding lead of 47-29. The game appeared to be over.

Then Meyer took things in his own hands. His shots were from all over the floor and in many cases off balance. He shot over and under the Methodist to net his splurge. He scored 7 baskets and 4 fouls for the 18.

The Lutheran's took the ball out of bounds and Meyer's

Evergreen Park, Hilltoppers Tap Knights Early

Mustangs Count 30 of 36 Free Tosses in 76-68 Victory Over L-W

George Ruhle put on a show for the fans, but it wasn't enough to cover the tremendous 30 for 36 foul shooting by the Evergreen Park high basketball team as the Knights lost 76-68.

Actually it was the first half that was the undoing of Kruzich's charges. At the half the score was 45-30 in favor of Evergreen. That lead was insurmountable, tho L-Way did get within four points of the Parkers with 30 seconds to go in the contest.

"Evergreen beat us from the free throw line. They haven't shot like that all year, but they surely did a job on us. If my boys had hit from the foul line as the Evergreens did -- we would easily have won the game," said Kruzich.

Ruhle collected 13 rebounds which is high for the Lincoln-Way team. This must be considered tremendous in the light that he is battling men who are five and six inches taller.

His shooting was no joke either. George hit on 6 of 10 shots -- which is 60% and added four of six charity tosses. It is the best that he has shown this year.

John LaPore and Dick Whittington shot well, both little guards hitting over 10 points -- LaPore getting 17.

Kruzich opened the game with Lincoln-Way in a zone, but the Evergreen team shot over it and came off with a 19-12 advantage.

Kruzich had the men press in the second quarter and Evergreen out ran them for a 26-18 second quarter and a half time bulge of 45-30.

With about 30 seconds in the game -- Evergreen's lead had dwindled to 72-68. The Knights had the ball -- a bad pass gave it to Evergreen and the score was 74-68.

Again the same accident occurred and the game ended with Evergreen taking the win 76-68.

Recently the Knight has shown rejuvenation. Since the holiday debacle at Naperville a marked improvement in play has come about.

The heart breaking loss to Reavis, now the toughy to Evergreen, should indicate better things to come for the men from New Lenox. Next time around -- meeting some of these teams at home -- Lincoln-Way should win a game or two.

The shooting of both teams was about even -- L-Way taking the edge with 38% to Evergreen's 33%.

It was Ruhle who kept the rebounding figures close. Evergreen won this battle, 33-28.

The Knights outscored the Evergreen team from the floor 25 to 23 -- it is the second time the L-Way team has done this in SW Suburban competition and still managed to lose the game.

Inexperience definitely brings some of the personal fouls which are definitely hampering the young L-Way team.

Jack Ethel of Evergreen was leading scorer in the game with 20 points. Reliable "Skip" Kruzich, L-Way guard, was second in this column with 19 tallies in the block.

The Lincoln-Way frosh-soph won handily over Evergreen Park, 51-40.

Hilltoppers Tap Knights Early

L-W-CATHOLIC HIGH battled it out at Lincoln-Way last week end with victory going to the Joliet Hilltop team. This picture illustrates the axiom that you can't score a basket without a ball. That business of now you have it, now you don't, is what puts zip in the game. The two central figures here are Morrison (43) and Lincoln-Way's Mike Dina (20), while alert in the background to see which way the ball will bounce is George Ruhle (41).

Joliet Catholic Too Powerful But Lincoln-Way Puts Up Fight

Joliet Catholic Hilltoppers were just too powerful, for the Lincoln-Way cagers on Saturday night. The never say die scrapping Knights made a game of it—possibly putting on one of its best demonstrations of the season in losing, 63-45.

In fact, Joliet pressed thru the entire contest to mount the final total of victory.

George Ruhle, who has shown marked improvement, played only 10 minutes of the game. George scored 10 points in that time and collected some vital rebounds.

"I don't think that we could have beaten JC even if George could have played the entire contest," shrugged Joe Kruzich, L-Way coach.

"They (JC) were just too tough for us. Every time one of its stars went cold, they had another hot one to bring off the bench."

Dedin and McCarthy, the much written off stars of Joliet Catholic, were limited to 10 points by Lincoln-Way, but a substitute by name of Garrison scored 18 points.

The Lincoln-Way fans screamed with glee as the Knights battled Catholic to a 15-14 margin in the first quarter of play. This was much better than expected.

Stalling tactics by the Knights backfired in a low scoring second period.

The Knights went to the dressing room down by 8 points. This was far better than they had done with a less talented Evergreen Park team the night before.

Joliet continued to add a few points to its lead in the last two periods and came off with the eventual winning margin.

This game would add more to the fact that Lincoln-Way is a much improved team over the first segment of the season. The final score did not at all indicate that Lincoln-Way was overmatched. Losing by 15 points is no disgrace—when losing to a team of this calibre.

"Jerry Haehelein played the best game that he has for me this year," said Kruzich. "Jerry has the ability, but came out with it for the first time in the Saturday game with JC."

Haehelein scored 12 points —his top production thus far. "Skip" Kruzich was good for only 4 baskets in 11 attempts. This was "Skip's" worst shooting of the campaign. However, the percentage was still over 30%. His season's average is well over 40%.

Joliet hit on 23 of 47 shots for a dazzling 48%. It is a most difficult task to beat this kind of shooting. Lincoln-Way shot about the same percentage as Friday evening with 36%.

The rebounding difference was much in favor of Joliet Catholic by a margin of 32-23. Ruhle's early loss was felt here.

Garrison and Chimelewski were the leading point men for the Catholics. Chimelewski was second in scoring for the evening with a total of 15. "That Chimelewski was also a demon on the board," emphasized Kruzich.

Lincoln-Way frosh soph took its lumps, 62-42.

Summary:

Lincoln-Way (45)
Twomey 1-1-3; Dina 1-0-2; Seavertson 1-3-5; Ruhle 3-4-10; Haehelein 4-4-12; Kruzich 4-0-8; McGuire 2-1-5.

Grapplers at Bremen Score Win Over Crew From Rich High 24-13

GRAPPLERS 2-24 sports JM

The Bremen Braves broke a long losing streak and smashed the wrestlers of Rich, 24 to 13. The victory showed a much improved Bremen squad and was combined with a 34 to 30 Frosh-Soph triumph.

Would Bremen, at full strength, have massacred Rich? This is a question that can never be answered, as the Braves have lost many top flight men. Among these are "Buzz" Drake, Arnie Blatt, Ed Trully, Mark Hoyer, Robin Renner and Art Dobkowski, who were all first string wrestlers last season. The loss of Drake, due to overweight, and Renner, from ineptibility, make the job of head coach, Kay Hutsell, very difficult. Concerning Renner, Hutsell said that Robin, when in peak condition, would be invincible at 95 pounds.

"Bremen will become well known in wrestling circles," Hutsell predicted. The Braves have what is called a Big Four. By this we mean that Jim Gruhn, Luke Kent, Jim Mueller, and Rich "Duke" Snyder are the four outstanding team wrestlers. Each of these matmen has compiled an excellent record, showing just how rough the Braves could be at full strength.

Coach Hutsell stresses hard work at wrestling practices and believes that this is the foundation of successful wrestling. "Hard work will get you some where in the world, whether in sports or later life," is the motto of the coach. Echoing this, most of the Bremen boys feel that they have never been in better condition.

Next Tuesday, powerful Thornton of Harvey will travel to Bremen and provide the

Letters to the Editor

At the request of the residents of the Tinley Southlands we wish to publicly extend our thanks to the employees of the village of Tinley Park.

During the recent severe weather our streets were plowed 4 times within one 36 hour period. By strong contrast unincorporated areas received little or no such assistance. Because this is our first winter as members of Tinley Park this civic service is not only gratifying, but it further strengthens our resolve that we made a progressive move and urge our neighbors to a similar action.

Peter J. Miller

Cub Pack 255

At the last pack meeting of Cub Pack 255, the following awards were made:

Mark Bettenhausen, John Burke, Donny Fulton, Jimmy Lehmann, and David Wilkinson became the newest additions to the pack and were presented with their neckerchiefs, Wolf books and Bobcat pins. These pins are pinned on the new Cubs upside down and must stay that way until the Cub is observed by his parents doing a good deed. Let's hope that by now all five of these Cubs are wearing their pins rightside up.

The first badge a Cub earns is the Wolf badge. He wins this by doing the 12 achievements in the Wolf book. For every 10 electives he completes after this he receives an arrow. The first arrow is gold and all others are silver.

Neal Mersman received his Wolf badge, a gold arrow and 3 silver arrows. Robert Orsinger's and Richard Klecka's mothers are busy sewing a Wolf badge, a gold arrow and a silver arrow to each of their son's shirts. Paul Zimmerman proudly wears his Wolf badge now, too.

Danny Januszewski, Larry Korth, Thomas Schwandt, Jerry Van Slyke and Mark Wicherman received their Bear badges. Richard Lindstrom and Craig Rennpage won their Bear badges, a gold arrow and a silver arrow a piece. The Bear badge is the second step up the trail that leads to being a Boy Scout and is earned by learning to do the 12 achievements in the Bear book. The arrows are awarded for each 10 electives accomplished, the same as for the Wolf arrows only the Bear requirements are somewhat more difficult since the Bear Cubs are a year older than the Wolf Cubs.

When a Cub reaches his 10th birthday he receives his Lion book which reaches the Cub even more advanced achievements and electives.

Richard Bauman received his Lion badge and a gold arrow. Fred Haber a Lion badge, a gold arrow and 2 silver arrows. James Hill a Lion badge, a gold arrow and a silver arrow and Joseph Kraman received his Lion badge.

ready received their badges and were jubilant at having Cubmaster Bob Meyer give them the arrows they had earned: Thomas Bettenhausen, 1 silver; Randy Fletcher, 1 gold, 1 silver; Kurt Hollwedel, 1 gold, 3 silver; Lee Schmedde, 1 gold, 3 silver; Daniel Speel, 1 gold, 1 silver; Sandy Triphan, 2 silver; Brian Vandenberg, 1 silver; William Wilkens, 1 gold and Richard Wilkinson, 1 silver.

Upon reaching the age of 10½ years all Cubs that want to go on into Boy Scouts are required to attend the Webelos Den meetings held each Wednesday night from 7 to 8 p.m. at the home of Bill Schwandt, 6645 Riverside Drive. Here they are taught many things, such as various knots, to prepare them for a good start toward earning their Tenderfoot badge when they join Boy Scouts.

Cub Pack 255 is very proud of the six boys who finished their Webelos training and therefore earned the highest award possible for a Sub Scout the Webelos badge. These six boys are: Richard Bauman, Teddy Bell, Thomas Bettenhausen, Terrance O'Malley, Brian Smothers and Richard Wilkinson.

These boys have worked hard for three years to be able to join the Boy Scouts and have had a lot of fun doing it BUT — now that they have reached the end of the trail in Cubbing they find the door to Boy Scouts is closed to them because there is only one Scout troop in Tinley Park and it is full. What are we going to do about this? The sponsor for a new troop is available and so are the committeemen — the one thing needed is a Scout Master! Isn't there a man in Tinley Park who remembers the many things he learned in Scouting and is a better man for having learned them? These six boys want to learn camping, etc., won't someone call Mike

Storm Water Problem Delays Home Building

Len Cooper, developer of Sundale Hills subdivision in Tinley Park is requesting approval of the village board of a set of plans for the second phase of his project so that it can be started by spring.

His engineer presented the plans at the board meeting Monday, but they will not be accepted by the village until a solution is reached in disposing of storm water.

A temporary solution suggested by the engineer, which has been discussed with Walter Wilson, acting engineer for the village, is to use a 10 acre area, leaving it undeveloped for the present and draining storm water west to 80th ave. The area which would be developed is about 9½ acres.

The plans submitted are for a maximum of 140 homes, according to the engineer.

The Sundale Hills subdivision is equipped with storm sewers, but has no outlet for disposing of storm water. By taking it west it could be directed to Midlothian creek, it was stated.

The plans for the next building phase would also need FHA and VA approval.

Scout Master Is Needed for Troop at Tinley

The Scouting program in Tinley Park may be closed to many boys if a scout master is not found.

Many of the boys graduating from Cub Scouts will be disappointed because there is only one Boy Scout troop in Tinley Park.

A new troop could be formed to take care of these boys. There is a sponsor and committeemen are available. All that is needed is for some man to volunteer to serve as Scout Master for the troop.

Here is a chance for someone to do a good deed, not only for himself, but for the community, and most of all to erase the disappointment from the eyes of the boys who want to graduate into Boy

The Motor Club reminds drivers to keep headlights clean. By cleaning dirty lenses the amount of light often can be increased by as much as one-third. Clean headlights take on added significance in winter when driving visibility often is poor.

The Motor Club offers the following suggestions if ground fog creates a driving hazard: 1. Don't drive unless it is absolutely necessary; 2. If you must drive, slow down to a safe speed; and 3. use your headlights, not your park

Snow covered road shoulders are deceptive, advises the Motor Club. Use extreme caution when it is necessary to pull off the highway to check your road map or for emergency stops. Snow may hide a culvert, ditch, or other hazard. Best thing to do is look for a little used country road or far-

Council Signs 5-Year Lease With J. E. Merriam Co. for City Hall

By CHLOE WHITE
Sycamore 8-6620

The city council has signed a lease with the J. E. Merriam Co. for what was formerly the Eric farm home at 177th and Crawford for use as a city hall. The lease is for five years at $1 a year.

A letter has been sent to the Public Service Co., setting forth the address of the new municipal quarters and asking for free power there as called for in the franchise. The council would have a similar concession made the fire protection district, if possible.

The fire department also is asking that it be allotted five of the 10 free telephones the city is scheduled to receive under its franchise with Illinois Bell. The number of phones furnished without charge is based on population. There are now 810 phones in use in Country Club Hills.

The planning and zoning commission is working on a final draft of a zoning ordinance. It was said that copies would be available for the public at the clerk's office before the measure is presented to the council for adoption.

Alderman Ray Gaertner reported that arrangements have been made for snow removal in the community. Bremen township is to take care of roads in Units I and II and Rich township of Unit 3. Merriam Co. will assume responsibility for what is left undone by Rich township, it was reported.

The position of city safety engineer was created by an ordinance introduced by Alderman Ray Hoewing and Louis Simpson Jr., has been appointed to the post for an indefinite term.

Stop signals have been posted at three intersections with Cicero, and the city has written to the state highway department twice asking for a reduction of the speed limit along Cicero where it borders Country Club Hills.

School District 160
Supt. Zenon Zykuta wishes to acknowledge the co-operation of radio station WMAQ during the recent bad weather. Arrangements have been made with this station for the announcement of any closing of the school under similar circumstances. Parents are urged to listen to this station and if no announcement is made to send the children to school.

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Feb. 11, 12 and 13, the schools will be closed, Supt. Zykuta announced. An area institute is scheduled for Feb. 11; Feb. 12 is Lincoln's birthday and Feb. 13 is to be devoted to a workshop. Parents are encouraged to accomplish medical and dental examinations on these days if necessary, especially if they would otherwise be necessary on regular school days.

Friday, Feb. 13 the kindergarten thru 6th grades will hold parent teacher conferences. Each family will receive an appointment and the conference at which the mid term report card will be discussed. This will give the teacher an opportunity to report on the progress of the pupil and also to discuss with the parent needs for improvement, if necessary.

The health committee of the PTA met with the superintendent to discuss the health program at school. Because of a County change in personnel there has been a delay in the rechecking of children with suspected sight and hearing defects. This program is about to resume soon.

The health committee has reorganized in order to better check health records of the school. Mrs. Jeffreys and Mrs. Malone will care for the Central school, Mrs. Amundsen and Mrs. Watkins at the Thomas Lane Schools and Mrs. Hunt and Mrs. Miller at the Baker schools.

In line with the safety program in effect new fire extinguishers have been purchased for the schools and the boiler room at Central school has been completely examined and a new type safety release valve of the type recommended by the Chicago fire commission has been installed.

Several parents have called the district office to offer books to the school. The district is happy to accept any books that children have read and outgrown if they are in good condition. If you have any such books, call the district office and arrangements will be made to pick them up.

With the redecorating of the washrooms, now in progress, the redecorating of the Central school will be completed.

The school district wishes to report on the equipment purchased with the $400 gift received from the former Mothers club. The district now has three science kits, one for each school, miscellaneous athletic equipment and two excellent three speed record changers.

Women's Club

Charles Wagner of the Home wood bakery is to be the guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Women's club of Country Club Hills on February 4th at Central school. The program will commence at 8 pm.

Mr. Wagner, a native of Switzerland, has travelled widely in Europe and has worked as pastry chef in the best hotels of Vienna, Berlin and Paris.

In America Mr. Wagner worked in the Roosevelt hotel in New York and as chief decorator at Stop and Shop in Chicago.

In 1952 he bought the Home-wood bakery and has been a member of the community since that time.

Mr. Wagner will explain the art of pastry decoration and will demonstrate with various cakes and icings.

The Women's club is planning to make a door to door canvas selling tickets to their first sponsored dance Feb. 7. To be called the "Cupid's Ball" it will be held in Saenger hall. Tickets may also be purchased at the door.

United Christian Church
Because the puppet show presented at the Christmas program had so much competition from the younger children members of the Junior Christian Fellowship decided to present it again for their parents. Each child made his or her own puppet and many hours had been spent on this project and also in making the stage.

The children told about customs of Christmas in other lands and prepared the scripts themselves. The entire group sang several songs and the program ended with refreshments.

The Junior Group held a snow party on Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pew. The erection of an enormous snow fort was substituted for the proposed ice skating trip, and after everyone was well chilled the party continued with refreshments and practice for the puppet show.

Elections were held two weeks ago and officers of the Junior Group for the next three months will be Larry Spencer, president; Scotty Desm, vice president and Laurie Nordgren secretary treasurer. This group meets Tuesday after school in the Thomas Lane school.

There will be an executive committee meeting Feb. 4 at Miss Esther Bettenhausen entertained her club this Wednesday at her home, due to the inclement weather and roads last week which caused the change of dates.

Mrs. Emery Bettenhausen will have the Family Life Circle this Thursday afternoon, January 29 beginning with dessert coffee. Mrs. William Bettenhausen will preside and Mrs. Wesley Bettenhausen is devotional chairman with Mrs. John Vautrin giving the discussion.

At the meeting Friday evening, the group formerly known as the Junior Adults of the North Peotone St. John's church, decided to change their name to Senior Fellowship.

Mrs. Ray Sippel led in the discussion of "Religion in the Schools." Mrs. Gilbert Sippel was devotional chairman and Mrs. Milton Werner presided at the business meeting.

LEGAL COOK COUNTY PERSONAL PROPERTY ASSESSMENT FOR 1958

This publication is the official notice to property owners, of the 1958 personal property assessments made in the town and district indicated.

THE LAW PROVIDES THAT, WHERE A PROPERTY OWNER FAILS TO RETURN A SWORN SCHEDULE LISTING HIS PROPERTY THE ASSESSOR OF COOK COUNTY MUST ESTIMATE ITS VALUE ACCORDING TO HIS BEST JUDGMENT AND INFORMATION, AND ADD THERETO A PENALTY OF 50 PER CENT. ASSESSMENTS RAISED ON ESTIMATES AND RETURNS HAVE EQUAL STANDING IN LAW.

The amounts herein listed are the assessed values of personal property as of April 1, 1958, as determined by the Assessor of Cook County.

The amount listed as the assessed value is not the tax. The tax may be determined by multiplying the assessed valuation after it has been equalized by the Department of Revenue of the State of Illinois, by the tax rate in the Town and District in which the property is assessed. The Assessor has nothing to do with the equalization of values or the establishing of tax rates. BASIS OF COMPLAINT ON ASSESSMENTS

Where a property owner has a specific claim of over or under valuation, complaint may be filed with the Board of Appeals in the County Building immediately after this notice. INFORMATION ON ASSESSMENTS

Each property owner who has any questions in regard to the same, should inquire at the office of the Assessor of Cook County, Room 312, County Building. Information will be furnished without cost.

P. J. CULLERTON, Assessor of Cook County

FARM NEWS

For Cook County
by
W. F. Whiteside

Assistant farm adviser

I would like to draw your attention to two important dates coming up very soon. Melvin Rohlfing, Matteson, chairman of the South Cook Soil Conservation District would like to urge you to attend the Soil Conservation District annual meeting to be held Thursday, Feb. 5 at the Tinley Park Methodist church. Among the business items to be considered will be the election of new directors. One of our own 4H club girls, Marilyn Nickel of Elgin, will be the featured speaker following the business meeting. She will show slides of her trip to Austria where she spent six months living with farm families as a part of the International Farm Youth Exchange.

The meeting will be preceded by a dinner. Tickets for the dinner may be obtained from the directors or at the Farm Bureau office.

The other important date concerns a meeting centering around the topics of crop varieties, fertilizers, and weed control. Also, on the same program, will be a session devoted to livestock management. This will pertain primarily to cattle, sheep and hogs. This meeting will be held at the Farm Bureau office, February 4th, starting at 10:00 a.m. Harry Russell, livestock specialist and W. O. Scott, crop specialist from the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, will be the featured speakers. This is your opportunity to hear the latest recommended practices, first hand. Maybe you can also get some answers to some old questions that have been bothering you. For these reasons and many others, I urge you to attend this meeting.

4H members looking for good 4H projects should circle the date Saturday, February 28. This is the date for the Annual 4H and FFA dairy calf sale at Urbana. Committees from the various dairy cattle breeds have already selected about 90 purebred dairy calves for the sale. This is an opportunity to improve your 4H dairy project.

The 4H Key club program will be continued and expanded, according to O. F. Gaeb, 4H Club specialist at the University of Illinois. The Key club program was initiated in 1954. Since that time, more than one thousand top 4H members from every county in the state are now members. Several 4H members in this area through diligent work have become members of this exclusive group. They are: Julia Gray, Ronald Kollman, William Lorenz, Audrey Mascitti, Audrey Gronert, Joseph Mulderink, Leslie Allen Yunker, Janet Rietveld, Anne Marie Shimek and Margaret Veldhuizen.

When one considers that these outstanding young people will soon take their place in the communities and assume responsible positions, one cannot be pessimistic about the future of America.

Cook County 4H Club work can be extremely proud of the record of Audrey Mascitti of Steger. In addition to the Key Club membership mentioned above, she is one of the four outstanding Illinois 4H Club members selected to represent the state's 67,000 4H'ers at National 4H Congress in Washington, D. C. Selection to attend the National conference is the highest honor a 4H member can achieve. Delegates are chosen by the state 4H staff at the University of Illinois for their leadership ability, outstanding achievements in 4H Club work, and participation in projects and community activities.

During the conference, the delegates will visit congress and other governmental functions and go on tours to historic places in and around Washington. They will hear some of the top officials of government speak on the nature and history of our democratic system, and meet in discussion groups to summarize what they have learned.

Driving too close to the vehicle ahead, says the Motor Club, brings a double danger when streets and highways are wet. First, there's the danger of a rear end collision. Second, your windshield and headlamps will collect a double dose of muddy spray thrown by the wheels of the car ahead. Leave room for safety.

Farmers Foolish Not to Report Earnings for Social Security

Key farm leaders in this area believe that a number of farmers are missing a "good thing" when it comes to social security.

Many farmers are still a good distance away from reaching retirement age and many have children under age 18.

Some of these farmers are not taking advantage of the option or choice in the social security law that permits them to report earnings for social security purposes, even though their actual net earnings for the year are less than $400.

Of course, if a farmer actually has net earnings of $400 or more in a year, he has no choice. He is obligated to report these earnings as a part of his federal income tax return and pay the social security tax, even though his total earnings are such that, with his exemptions, he may owe no federal income tax. However, if a farmer's net earnings are below $400, he may have a choice of reporting or not reporting for social security. If a farmer's gross earnings are $1,800 or less, he may report, for social security purposes, two thirds of his gross as his net. Thus, a farmer who had a gross income of $1,500 could report two thirds of that amount or $1,000 as his net earnings for social security purposes, even though his actual net is less than $400. Like wise, a farmer whose gross earnings are over $1,800 may report $1,200 as his net for social security purposes only, even though his net may be less than $400. In order to receive social security credit for the year, the net reported must be at least $400.

Some younger farmers are not taking advantage of this option. Apparently, they do not realize that in failing to do so, they are not providing their families with survivors insurance protection under social security. Take for example a farmer with a wife and two children under 18. If he had reported $1,200 a year from 1956 on for social security and if he died, his family could become entitled to $88.60 a month in survivors insurance.

A farmer neglecting to make social security reports may also be depriving himself of a chance to collect disability payments under social security should he become severely disabled later.

The experience with farmers so far indicates that the incidence of disability among farmers is relatively high and so here again farmers not close to 65 may be depriving themselves and their dependents of a "good thing", as five years of social security coverage out of the last ten years before a person becomes disabled are required.

Another mistaken idea is responsible for some farmers failing to report their earnings on the option. Some farmers believe that they can begin to report for two years or so as they approach 65 and they qualify for benefits at age 65. Definitely, this is not the case where younger persons are concerned. For example, a farmer who will reach 65 in January 1971 or later, will have to have reported for 10 years at least before he can be insured and entitled to benefits. And, it will be to his advantage to have reported for every year from 1956 on, as his average earnings, upon which the amount of his benefit will be based, may be higher for having reported every year. Similarly, a farmer who reaches 65 in the first six months of 1965 will have to have made social security reports for at least seven years to qualify for benefits at age 65 or later.

Farmers wishing to have further information should write or contact the social security office located at Harvey, Ill.

The Motor Club offers drivers three simple tips that will go a long way toward making driving safer for you: Know and obey all traffic laws, use common sense behind the wheel, and be courteous toward other drivers and pedestrians.

That Telephone Tax Is Still Here

If you haven't written to your congressman lately for lack of something to say you might try your hand at some of the nuisance taxes in general and reel off a couple of hundred words on the telephone tax in particular.

When World War II broke out congress broke out in a rash of taxes. Some were imposed to bring in revenue and some were imposed to discourage spending money on luxuries when there were bonds to be bought. A transportation tax was inflicted largely to discourage people from traveling.

Whether the telephone tax was imposed to discourage people from talking is uncertain but it was imposed. These and many other taxes were enacted strictly as war measures, or so it was declared at the time. When the war was over, the tax happy lawmakers stated, all of these imposts would be repealed.

World War II has been over 12 years ago and the Korean War ended five years ago but most of the so-called wartime taxes are still going strong.

Why there should be a tax on your telephone bills and a tax on long distance calls can only be explained by the fact that once a taxing body gets its hooks into John Q. Public it hates to let go.

Someone has said that old taxes never die. Neither do they fade away but sometimes if enough pressure is applied the politicians will kill them.

Certainly no one can argue that the telephone is a luxury. The telephone has not only become a necessity but is a vital factor in our business and economic life.

The telephone tax is 10% of your telephone bill. At the end of a year that amounts to a sizable piece of money. For many years now the telephone companies have been endeavoring to get congress to repeal this tax. They are prepared to try their luck again with the present congress.

It seems to us that the least the public can do is lend a hand. Perhaps if enough of us write our congressmen and senators we can get some action.

All it will cost you is a little time, a few sheets of paper and envelopes and a couple of stamps. That's pretty cheap when you figure up the dollars this telephone tax costs you every year.

necessary to get streets open but this writer would like to know why in keeping the streets open the plow crews must seal up driveways that have been cleaned out at or by heavy expense or hard labor.

The easiest way to deal with snow, of course, is to live in the south. One gets an occasional snow even in the deep south but it presents no problem.

The highways also get icy on occasion but they present no problem either.

When snow comes or freezing rains glaze roads with ice the inhabitants just settle down, poke up the fire and wait. They know that when the sun comes out the next day or the day after that snow and ice will disappear. Then they resume their labors.

They reason that only fools go out in stuff like that.

How about it? Florida, anyone?

Your Doctor Reports

THE FIVE DANGER SIGNALS: Part II

There are five danger signals of cancer which can lead to its detection at an early stage. However these symptoms may be caused by diseases other than cancer and it is also true that a cancer may be too far advanced to be cured even when a danger signal first appears. Nevertheless prompt attention to any one of the following symptoms is the best protection we have against this disease.

1. The appearance of a lump: most new swellings can be seen as well as felt, since they are usually just beneath the skin. Many times the lump is either a harmless fatty tumor or a cyst. However it is always better to consult the doctor than to decide about its importance on one's own. Lumps which appear in the breast are of special importance because it is a common location for malignancy in the female. Cancer of the breast is curable in three of every four patients, if discovered and treated in an early stage. It is good practice for women to detect any developing lump. More often than not, the swelling will be only a cyst but that is for the physician to determine. Your doctor will be quite willing to instruct you in the correct method of breast examination.

2. Abnormal bleeding: It takes no special knowledge for a patient to recognize abnormal bleeding. Blood in the urine or stool should be taken seriously. Many people have had occasional blood in the stool for years as the result of hemorrhoids. As these individuals grow older they continue to assume the blood is still due to the same cause. All too often this is a false assumption and by the time the patient realizes his latest episode of bleeding is not due to hemorrhoids, he has wasted precious weeks or months during which a bowel malignancy has been advancing.

3. In this age of heavy cigarette smoking, frequent colds and flu infections, many people cough a good deal. As a result, it is easy for an individual to ignore the fact that his cough has been hanging on for some time. It is good practice to consult one's doctor whenever a cough persists any longer than two or three weeks. A chest x-ray can immediately determine whether the cause is merely a stubborn case of bronchitis or not.

4. The skin is a very tough structure and when it is injured it ordinarily is able to heal rapidly. Cancer of the skin usually starts as a small harmless-appearing sore or pimple which simply will not heal. Sometimes it will break open a gain. Skin cancer can be cured completely and easily if detected in an early stage and it is indeed tragic for one not to consult a physician concerning any skin sore that does not heal at a normal rate.

5. When one has always had normal bowel habits and then develops persistent constipation or alternating constipation and diarrhea, it should be investigated. Prompt medical attention to this type of change can make possible tumor, early diagnosis of a bowel possible to change the discouraging cancer picture in.

Modern medicine has made many instances. It is up to all of us to be on the alert and to take fullest advantage of those protections available to us.

Every Variety Has Its Friends

BY ROBERT MANN
(Cook County Forest Preserve)

Very few people are indifferent about birds. Almost every bird is the feathered friend of somebody or some organization ready to do battle in its behalf.

At present, in Illinois, songbirds and most other wild birds, together with their nests and eggs, are completely protected by law at all times. A few kinds, called game birds, may be shot by hunters. pheasants and quail, also, migratory ducks, geese, coots, jacksnipes, woodcocks, and doves. Such hunting must be done with shotguns in certain places in certain open seasons with many other detailed restrictions. Now, even crow hunters are licensed. The only unprotected birds are those three immigrants or exotics: the English Sparrow, the European starling and the "domestic" pigeon. These, too, have their friends.

The federal and state regulations on hunting are changed from year to year as game bird populations increase or decrease, or as we learn more about the habits of some kinds which were formerly considered undesirable. For example, the last Illinois General Assembly put all hawks and owls on the protected list, except that a farmer may still destroy one raiding his poultry. These predators, as a group, do far more good than harm by catching rats, mice and other rodents. Previously, the great horned owl, Cooper's hawk and sharp-shinned hawk were unprotected, but hunters seldom knew one of these from a dozen or more other beneficial hawks and owls. They pulled the trigger first and looked later.

In their annual migrations between their summer and winter homes many, or perhaps most, kinds of birds fly thousands of miles. Formerly, these travelers were protected in some regions but not in others. In order to correct abuses, two acts of Congress put into effect the Migratory Bird Treaty with Canada in 1918 and a similar treaty with Mexico in 1937. These Federal laws set uniform regulations for the hunting of migratory game birds. Market hunting and spring shooting was stopped. All songbirds and non-game species, such as most shore birds, are given complete protection, as well as certain kinds of waterfowl threatened with extinction.

Just before the turn of the century, the slaughter of egrets and other birds for their plumes and skins to decorate women's hats created such a furor among bird lovers that it led to the organization of the National Audubon

Churches Unite In Pre-Lenten Classes Feb. 13

BY ELIZABETH B. ANDERSON
Lockport 886W2

The Rev. George Moulthrop of Lockport Congregational church and the Rev. Roy Hanson of Homer church will hold Lenten classes at one church or the other, each Friday night during Lent, beginning Feb. 13. Topics and meeting place for each week will be announced as the classes progress. The general topic will be "Conversations in Faith". Registration for the classes may be made now by contacting Mr. Hanson or Susanne Burcham.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cleveland of Lockport are the parents of a son born in St. Joseph's hospital Jan. 12. The baby is a grandson of the M. A. Cleveland and lives at 143rd and Creme rds.

Mrs. Neals of New Lenox visited her friend, Mrs. John Mark, of N. Cedar road last Tuesday.

Mrs. Honora Lahmann attended the funeral of a relative in Chicago Tuesday. Mrs. Ray Carlson substituted for her at District 33-C.

Funeral services were held Monday, Jan. 19 in the Dames funeral parlors in Joliet, for Edward L. Wilson, 77, who died in St. Joseph's hospital Jan. 17. The Rev. C. B. Arms officiated. Burial was in Elmhurst cemetery.

Born in Palos Park the deceased was the youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson who lived for several years on the farm in Homer township now owned by the McCabe family. He attended Barnett school. For many years he worked in the offices of Dunn and Bradstreet in Chicago. Two years ago he retired to Joliet. Three brothers, one sister and his wife preceded him in death. Two sister-in-laws, Mrs. Ellen Wilson and Mrs. Mary Wilson both of Joliet, and several nieces and nephews survive.

Mrs. Matilda Waters, mother of Mrs. Elvies Cagwin, Homer township died Jan. 21 in St. Joseph's hospital, following a long period of illness. Funeral services were held Sat. in the Reeves Funeral Home in Wilmington with burial in the Wilmington cemetery.

She is survived by two daughters, three sons, 11 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren. Her husband, Don, died 17 years ago. Since then she has lived with her children and recently has spent much time in the Cagwin home. At one time the family lived on what is now the Merit Cagwin farm, but Society. Now, we are becoming aroused over the destruction of bird life by the increasingly widespread use of poisons to control mosquitoes, elm bark beetles and other insect pests.

Illinois has many publicly owned refuges for birds and other wildlife. Some large, some small. These provide food, cover, nesting places and rest grounds free from all hunting. Three large federal refuges in Illinois give protection to millions of migrating waterfowl as well as to other birds: the Crab Orchard Lake Refuge near Carbondale, the Chautauqua Lake Refuge in the Illinois River Valley near Havana and, in the northwest corner of the state, about a tenth of the 300,000-acre Upper Mississippi River Refuge. In addition to all of the state parks, the Illinois Department of Conservation maintains the Horseshoe Lake Refuge near the southern tip of the state famous as a wintering ground for Canada geese. Ten Illinois counties have forest preserve districts. Cook County, with 45,000 acres of forest preserve land, offers security and a choice of natural habitats to suit the taste of almost any wild bird from hummingbirds to wandering swans and pelicans.

(Editor's note: When the ground is covered with ice and snow, birds can starve if people fail to set out food.)

for the greater part of their lives they lived in the Wilmington area.

Mrs. Frank Morris was mistakenly named a Sergeant-at-arms among the Fire Auxiliary officers last week. The person elected was Mrs. Bernard Morris.

The Wayside Workers circle of King's Daughters are planning to meet, in the home of their president, Mrs. Iola Storm, 522 Washington St., Lockport, Thursday, Feb. 5, at one o'clock. They are hoping for improved roads and weather.

A meeting of the Ways and Means committee of Homer church missionary society was held in the home of the new president, Mrs. Waldvogel, last Wednesday. The first meeting of the society since the annual election is being held today at the church. A blind auction will be a special feature.

Loren Sass has recently been named a director of Soil Conservation Service for this district.

Billy Greenwald fell from a sled while playing with some young friends last Saturday, sustaining a cut in his knee which required seven stitches. Earlier in the week Bruce Hollister fell and cut his face, which required three stitches to repair.

Frank Milne has been quite ill with the flu, as has Willard Rowley, Jr. who has also suffered from an ear infection. Mrs. John Mark is also a flu victim.

Mary Filipowicz is recovering from the mumps.

The Rev. and Mrs. Roy Hanson visited relatives in Kansas City last week.

The Rev. Byron Reynolds, Mrs. William Mergler and Mrs. Ira Anderson were Sunday dinner guests in the George Burcham home.

Persons whose snow shoveling technique may have become dulled thru lack of experience the past several winters should have regained their skill this season.

The hand plow, which has been a popular gadget this winter, is all right for light powdery snow but when the snow is drifted and packed as it was last week, or when it is the heavy, wet variety, the hand plow is about as useful as a knife for eating soup.

Even the pusher, built with a handle like a shovel, is of little value against such a snow as was our lot last week. The only way to get rid of snow like that is the hard way, with a snow shovel and the Armstrong method.

Here and there one could hear the ringing sound that indicates a scoop shovel was at work. Swinging a scoop shovel is a chore, even if it's empty. It is no tool for amateurs yet one usually sees some man struggling to move snow with a scoop whose experiences with scoops has been confined largely to scoops of beer or ice cream.

Snow shoveling is credited with taking numerous lives each year. Why shoveling snow should be harder on the heart than spading a garden, for instance, or digging ditches or blasting out of sand and rough at a golf course, has never been clearly explained, as far as I know.

But who am I to dispute such a theory. As a matter of fact this winter subscribes most heartily to the premise that shoveling snow is detrimental to one's health. In fact he will go further and contend that spading garden is another thing to be avoided at all hazard.

Cutting grass... with a power mower... is not too fatiguing if the area mowed is not too large. However, the most salubrious exercise to follow in the summertime is to set up a rocking chair on a shady porch where one can rock back and forth and occasionally stretch out an arm to pick up a refreshing beverage and transmit it... slowly... to one's lips.

In the winter time one merely changes the scene from outdoors to indoors and the rocking chair to a deep upholstered one. The beverage is still good. And if you don't believe stretching out the arm is sufficient exercise one can occasionally move his feet or flex his knees.

Looking on falling snow under these circumstances can be very relaxing, especially if one doesn't have to get out in the stuff.

Only pessimists get out and shovel snow. Optimists pay no heed to it. They know that some day the sun will shine, the mercury will climb and presto! the snow melts and the walks and streets are dry again.

Of course, snow plows are

Business and Finance

The highly respected monthly survey of the Cleveland Trust Co. states it believes there is to be a substantial increase in auto sales this year. It also points out that in previous years of business recovery, the auto industry has scored larger gains than business activity as a whole.

Students of the auto industry point out that the percentage of the nation's spendable income usually devoted to automobile purchases is rather constant that overbuying on one year results in underbuying in next year, etc. It is pointed out that there was definite overbuying in 1955 when sales were 7.2 million cars and underbuying turned in about 5.9 cars and in 1956 and 1957 which each that 1953 was a year of definite underbuying with sales of only 4.9 million. These figures refer to domestic production only. Sales of domestic autos are expected to be at least 6 million in 1959 with the likelihood that 1960 will be a record year with sales exceeding 1955. Dealers have unusually small inventories at this time.

On small cars, the U. S. News & World Report points out that sales of European cars in this market, are expected to be in the neighborhood of 500,000 cars in 1959. Manufacturers are closely watching this market. The magazine points out, however, that although medium priced cars have been losing ground for the past several years, they are now getting about 30 percent of the market. Figures are based on Olds and Buick. If this trend continues, there will be hesitation in going all out on small cars. General Motors and Ford are expected to have their small cars on the market early in second half of this year - Chrysler in early 1960.

The increase in auto production will have a heavy impact on many industries such as steel, glass, tires, etc. which are tied into the fortunes of the motor industry.

Profits of these industries rise and fall with the general business picture and are known as "cyclical" industries. They have rather rigid operating cost levels which cannot be reduced greatly without simply going out of business. There is a production point in each which is known as the break-even point and when sales decrease below this point, the loss in the percentage decline in sales and by the same token, the rise above this point in profits is greater than the percentage rise in sales.

An example is had in steel. Production is expected to rise from about 85 million tons to about 110 million tons which is about 25 per cent. Profits are expected to rise almost 50 per cent.

The alloy steels such as Allegheny Ludlum, Vanadium, and Pittsburgh Metallurgical usually lag behind, but pick up fast.

Coppers are expected to do well and some are predicting copper prices of above 30 cents per pound by the year end. The aluminum industry is now much more competitive in fabricated product and prices likely to suffer somewhat. Russian aluminum is an increasingly important factor in European market.

Chemicals are expected to show a rise of 10 to 15 per cent in sales and even better in profits due to heavy plant and modernization expenditures of past few years. Lead is not considered so optimistically due to lack of new markets and a declining ore situation.

Methodists Are Participating in World Church Attendance Crusade

By KATHERINE HEISNER
Frankfort 5187

The Frankfort Methodist church is participating in the world wide church attendance crusade, January thru Easter. The local crusade has been planned and sponsored by the membership and evangelism commission, Glen Ferrell, chairman.

Attendance is taken by name at the 10:30 a.m. worship service each Sunday. It is then recorded on a large chart listing the names of all members and constituents of the church. A committee then scans the chart and selects those who have not been in regular attendance and pulls their family card from a file prepared in advance.

At 1:30 p.m. each Sunday approximately ten teams of friendly visitors gather in the church office to select families upon whom they will call. Each team selects three cards of families who have not attended recently and three cards of families in regular attendance. The teams enjoy a brief devotional together and then go visiting in the homes selected. It is planned that every family of the church shall be visited before the program is completed.

A running account of the attendance is kept posted on a graph in the narthex each week. "Parents Night" will be observed at the Feb. 1 meeting of the Frankfort Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship. Beginning at 7 p.m. in fellowship hall of the church MYF members will bring their parents as guests.

parent teacher conferences were scheduled at 10 minute intervals thru out the day.

Her car skidded on ice, turned completely around, traveled backwards, across the oncoming lane in the path of an oil truck and came to rest at the foot of a 15 foot embankment! This remarkable woman walked away from the accident, received a lift into Orland Park and kept her appointment at the school!

Mrs. Wilbur Eckel and Mrs. Milton Westlund are collecting for the March of Dimes.

Milton Westlund was "snowed out" of the woods last Wednesday night. He attempted to drive into 80th avenue from 135th st. and succeeded in getting a third of the way when he discovered the road was impassable with high drifts. He proceeded home on foot and phoned for a tow truck to pull his car back to 135th st. He spent the night in Chicago at the home of his parents. Other drivers fortunate enough to arrive home were "snowed in."

Friends took advantage of being snowed in by having informal gatherings and pot luck suppers.

Common sights on Saturday and Sunday were youngsters on tobaggans being towed via long ropes attached to the family automobile, and little tykes on their sleds being pulled by their fathers.

Robert Anderson was unable to get home from work Sunday night as he had car trouble and spent the night in Chicago with his mother.
